

Love In The City

presented by

The Love Life Stylist

Traveling the world and talking to many people there is one universal desire in humankind I find.
The desire and need to connect with another human being.

Tried all the match making sites?
Over the bar scene?
Just can't do the hustle?

We desire LOVE.
All you need is love!
You must love me.
Love is a many splendored thing.
Love to love you baby.
Sea of love.
Will you love me tomorrow?
Love me tender.....

Come to a 'Love in the City' event.
24 hours of focus on a weekend date with yourself and others who desire the same. The difference....you will become intimately acquainted with your Saturday night party people and create a critical mass of attraction when we set out on an evening of entertainment.

We begin at 4pm on Saturday with a gathering and a dialogue coupled with interviews that reveal the inner light of each participant. With our lights brightly shining and communication tools in hand, we will embark on a night on the town created and planned by the group.

Participants socialize and incorporate learned tools in the evening. Evening will be completed at 10pm, and we reconvene at 1pm on Sunday for brunch.
This is where we dialogue about the evening, looking at our successes and failures.
We complete at 4pm on Sunday.

Fee is $35 per person. Pre register in advance, and the introductory price for 2010 is $20 / couples $35.
